Worksheet: Physical Features of India

IGCSE · Class 9 · Social Studies · 11 questions · 27 marks

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 27

Q1. Name the six physiographic divisions of India. [1 mark]

Q2. Name the three parallel ranges of the Himalayas. [1 mark]

Q3. What is the difference between Bhabar and Tarai? [2 marks]

Q4. What is the difference between the Central Highlands and the Deccan Plateau? [2 marks]

Q5. Where do the Western and Eastern Ghats meet? [1 mark]

Q6. Why is the Himalayan range still rising today? [3 marks]

Q7. Why are the Northern Plains so important economically and demographically? [3 marks]

Q8. Why is the Peninsular Plateau rich in minerals? [3 marks]

Q9. Why is the Thar Desert located where it is, despite India's tropical climate? [3 marks]

Q10. Compare the Western and Eastern Coastal Plains of India. [3 marks]

Q11. Compare the Himalayas with the Peninsular Plateau on geological age, formation, mineral resources, and current activity. [5 marks]